

- 30 -

ABSTRACT

Incorporated in data is a price tag including price information about one or more service/product for trading by a customer. A charging agent associated with one or more network operators servicing the customer reads the price tag and if warranted, charges or credits the account(s) of the customer with the network operator(s) in accordance with the price information. In some cases the traded product(s) includes at least part of the data in which the price tag is incorporated.